

Academic Services

innovation for transformative education

Environmental education, sustainability training and responsible citizenship are of growing importance to education and training providers. Our Academic Service offers consultancy for the fusion of social and ecological issues into existing curricula and courses.

We also offer staff training and teaching support to help you with the process of curricula integration. This ensures the smooth transition to dealing with challenging topics.

